

BERNIE WEFERS IS A WONDER.

The Champion Sprinter Lowers the Figures for Three Hundred Yards.

Left His Field Standing, and, Running Very Strong, Finished in Thirty Seconds.

The Georgetown Student Was Also Placed Second in the Handicap Sprint Race.

'T'WAS A GRAND DAY'S SPORT.

And Witnessed by a Big Crowd—Southern Athletes Failed to Do Anything Startling—Smash Up in the Bicycle Race.

The successful effort of B. T. Wefers to lower the 300-yard record formed a brilliant conclusion to a capital day's sport at the New Jersey Athletic Club's grounds at Bergen Point yesterday afternoon. The committee had arranged an attractive programme, and fully 3,500 people were present when the opening sprint race was called at 2 o'clock.

Previously to this an association football match had taken place between the Empire A. C. and the Centurions. The former were returned winners to 3 goals to 1. The Empire always held the upper hand, their opponents apparently losing heart early in the game, when two points were scored against them in the first twelve minutes. Both of these should have been saved by the goal keeper. A football game under Gaelic rules which followed caused much amusement. The Sarfields were no match for the Barrys, the latter obtaining 3 goals and 12 points against 3 points.

Twenty-eight men entered the post for the 100-yard handicap, including the champion Wefers. The latter won his heat from Halstead without difficulty, and four others qualified for the final. "Sparrow" Robertson got the men off in good shape and Sulzer led them after the first fifteen yards, and won by a foot. The others finished in a bunch, and the judges, after considerable delay, placed them as stated in the summary below, Wefers being undoubtedly third. The latter lodged a complaint against Jarvis for fouling, and this seemed to rattle the officials, but they did not entertain the protest. It should be mentioned that the course was not strung off, and Wefers evidently had some trouble in endeavoring to get through his field.

The two-mile bicycle race brought about the inevitable smash-up, without which no cycle contests on these grounds are complete. Just before entering the final lap, Livingston, who was leading the race, fell, and five men fell over him, spoiling the chances of former, who looked a survivor at this point. The race was called off, and the one-mile race later on, but got back his acrobatic performance on this occasion until he had regained the pace.

Walter E. Grady secured the mile handicap, coming along strongly in the straight at a time when the race looked a little tight. The Navy men got up to carry the long markers in the race, but Grady stuck to him and secured the gold medal by a timely rush.

A large and excited out for the half-mile handicap, and G. H. Hollander, with five yards' start, took the race easily. The brothers Liebowitz, who were usually the contestants in the walking race, while A. Shiman ran with capital judgment in the novice's four-furlong contest.

SOUTHERNERS NOT PRESENT.
The Southern athletes, who had been expected to take part in the 100-yard handicap—liberal for men who aspire to championship honors—had, nevertheless, succeeded in getting back in their usual place. B. Jones, of Birmingham, Ala., essayed the high jump, and 5 feet 5 inches was the best he could do yesterday.

In the special half-mile race, Charles Kilpatrick had been announced to attempt to beat this record of 1:52.5. Walter E. Grady, who was evidently not in the Kilpatrick along, as the first quarter was run in 58 seconds. He raced alongside the Union-Princeton, and the latter under these circumstances had only to make his effort at the right time to secure the race. He got home first by about half a yard, but the latter was very poor, after what one had been led to expect.

The special two-mile race, which resolved itself into a match between Hjerberg and Bead, ended in a fizzle, the latter having a bad attack of cramps after going a mile and a half. He struggled on, but the Swede trotted home 150 yards to the goal.

WEFERS' GREAT PLAY.
Excitement ran high when Wefers took the mark for the 300-yard sprint race, Lyons, Garvin and Jarvis also starting with him. The Georgian, who was off like a flash and led at the top corner by 10 yards. On he pounded and he rushed alone into the straggling, evident of a great deal of speed. He was in the lead, and this he succeeded in doing, the three times, C. C. Hughes, E. J. Wendell and C. E. Mandle, giving him 30 seconds to carry.

A truly grand performance, considering that the N. J. A. C. track is all against fast time even at the best of the weather. There is no doubt but what Wefers is in fine fettle just now. His condition is perfect, and he seems so thoroughly to enjoy himself on the circuit that he is a real representative of the quarter-mile championship race at Manhattan. Every one who saw him in the race will have to put his best foot forward if he wants to repeat his last year's success. In fact, this race should be one of the features of the meeting.

Taken altogether, the nineteenth series of games of the N. J. A. C. must be voted a credit to President James D. Sullivan, Chairman James D. 130rd and the Games Committee. It was an enjoyable day for all concerned.
